

PRESIDENT COMMUTES SENTENCES OF THIRTY-ONE POLITICAL PRISONERS

France Planning To Fund War Debt

PARIS, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—The possibility of an early funding of France's debt to the United States is being considered in French official circles, it was learned today.

For some time it has been known that President Poincaré desired to find a way of discharging the critics who have intimated that the French were indifferent to their war obligations, but in view of the financial situation the premier has seen no possibility of undertaking immediate payments without imposing heavy new taxes, a step which the interior political situation has made hazardous.

The effect of such payments on the exchange value of the franc has also been an important obstacle.

The recent declaration of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon that the United States does not want to press France on this question has opened in French minds the possibility of the early funding of the debt.

It is now thought that the American treasury would like, with a provision for deferred payments of interest and principal that would give France "time to turn around."

If the United States, in fixing a rate of interest, were inclined to consider the capacity of France to pay, French officials believe an arrangement might be made on a two per cent basis.

French proposals on the subject are likely to come from France at an early date in view of the growing conviction that the Cless C. repatriation bonds can never be utilized for the extinction of the inter-allied debts.

COOLIDGE MAY BE ASKED TO SOLVE IT

WASHINGTON, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—An agreement which may end the dispute in the case over committee assignments was reached today by Republican and insurgent leaders. At the same time negotiations to break the senate organization deadlock were renewed, but the outcome remained doubtful. Under the agreement on the Senate side, a Republican insurgent will be placed on the rules committee which directs the house legislative program and the Democrats will be denied additional representation.

WASHINGTON, December 15.—(By the United Press)—President Coolidge will be asked to solve the organization tangle in the senate when the election of chairman of the Senate Commerce Committee is asked by Congress. All compromise proposals for the solution of the deadlock seemed on a verge of collapse today. The Progressives are determined to continue existing their vote against Senator Cummins, thus preventing his election. Republican leaders refused to consider voting for Senator Cummins, the compromise. Senator Howell's chance seemed more remote at the present time for while he is Republican National Committeeman, his views on railroad legislation are classed as radical by the Conservatives. If these compromise candidates are not agreed to by the administration, the Progressives say they will bring enough votes to elect the Democratic Senator Smith.

EL PASO, TEXAS, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—All Juarez troops on duty through but the city were recalled to the barracks at noon today. Special squads of men with bugles summoned the troops. Colonel Lopez, commandant of the garrison, refused to comment on the situation or on a rumor that the troops were to declare for de la Huerta.

One Revolt Settled

RIO JANEIRO, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Newspaper dispatches from Porto Alegre report the signing of a peace agreement between the revolutionaries in Rio Grande do Sul and the state authorities. The signature took place at Bage, where conferences have been in progress for more than a month between leaders of the revolt and representatives of the government.

Unconfirmed reports say that the state made concessions which will democratize elections and give a more liberal representation to the minority. Amnesty is said to have been granted to the rebels.

The revolt in Rio Grande do Sul started last January upon the reelection of Dr. Borges de Medeiros who, the rebels represented, had been chosen illegally.

News of the peace agreement was received here with great satisfaction especially in financial and business circles.

LaFollette Scores Senator Cummins

WASHINGTON, December 15.—(By the United Press)—Senator LaFollette took over active control today of the little Progressive bloc in the senate which is fighting against Senator Cummins for reelection as chairman of the interstate commerce committee. LaFollette in his first statement flayed Cummins as a symbol of reactionary railroad legislation and urged selection of either Senators Howells or Couzens.

Sentenced For The Murder Of Preacher

CUMBERLAND COURT HOUSE, VIRGINIA, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Larkin C. Garrett, was found guilty of voluntary manslaughter and his punishment fixed at four years imprisonment by a jury today for his part in the killing last June 5 of the Rev. E. S. Pierce. His brother, Robert O. Garrett, jointly indicted with him for the slaying recently was convicted of second degree murder and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary.

TOLEDO, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Judge John M. Killits today countermanded an order issued by the United States Marshal here and directed to the chief of police in Tiffin using the arrest of 25 persons including Mayor Adolph Unger in various prohibition law violations.

"I do not want any of those indicted arrested," Judge Killits said, "and I will trust them to appear when summoned." The arrest early today requested the Tiffin police chief to hold the persons indicted.

Being a partner in a bootlegging business in Tiffin is the charge against Unger.

It is charged that under an agreement which he is said to have made with Eugene Grimes and Charles Bare, in January, 1923, they were to manufacture, sell and deliver liquor to various parties, the mayor promising protection to his partners and suggesting the possibility of a monopoly in Tiffin.

Unger was a candidate for reelection at the recent election, but was defeated by John Dreitzler by a scant majority.

Those indicted with Unger, Grimes and Bare are: Fred Lang, Anthony Trautman, Frank Mitchell, Edward Clouse, Edward Marks, George E. Swigart, Charles Trimmer, George Schmidt, Pearl Grimes, William Leiby, Lawrence Burkhardt, Charles Allison, James Roberts, Aaron Precht, Edward Wagner, C. H. Stetter, Neil Platt, Neil Hoke, Lewis Kochum, A. O. Moorehead, New Hatcher and C. P. Rodgers. Some of these are said to be prominent men of Tiffin.

Numerous overt acts are cited in the indictment. There is the charge of an agreement between Grimes and Bare to divide the profits in which Unger was to share. Their arrangement was to share. Their arrangement was to share. Their arrangement was to share.

Unger was charged with having promised to protect Lang, to whom Grimes and Bare are said to have delivered a still.

Trautman was indicted by Grimes to make liquor for the partnership. It is charged in another count, but only after he also had been promised protection. It is charged that Clouse was induced to buy his supply of liquor from Grimes and Bare, and at one time, when it became known that Clouse's home was to be searched on a warrant issued by some one, Unger is said to have told Grimes and Bare to warn Clouse in order that he might destroy the liquor in his house before the officers could reach it. This warning was given, the indictment declared.

Later, it is charged, Grimes influenced Swigart to make liquor. Mitchell is accused of having bought liquor from Grimes and Bare. Schmidt is reported as having advised the partnership of prospective customers and as having had his share in the alleged police protection which the "business" enjoyed.

Delivery of liquor by Grimes and Bare to Mitchell's barber shop is charged in another count, when Trimmer bought whiskey from Grimes and Bare he was told, the indictment charged, that he would be "lipped off" by any threatened raids.

At least in one instance, Pearl Grimes agreed to transport liquor from her home to that of Lang, who took possession of it, the indictment says. Lohy also is said to have been among Grimes' and Bare's customers as were Burkhardt, Allison, Roberts, Fred, Hatcher and Rogers.

Unger is named as being with Grimes and Bare when liquor was transported to Grimes' home and to Platt, Hoke, Yochum, Moorehead, Wagner and Stetter. The latter, the indictment charged, told Grimes and Bare first that Unger wanted to go into partnership with them, as he put it himself, "to go with them into a combination to control the liquor business in Tiffin."

Plunges To Death From 9th Story

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—An all night investigation failed to clear up to the satisfaction of the police, some of the circumstances connected with the death of Charles W. Nevin, 31, who plunged to his death last night from a ninth story window of the St. James Hotel in view of scores of homebound workers and shoppers. Two companions, Frank P. Nicholson, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and William F. Fottrell, Jr., of Port Kennedy, Penna., who admitted having been in the room drinking with Nevin, and who were arrested shortly after his fatal plunge, were in custody.

Constant questioning failed to shake their story that they had fallen asleep in the room with Nevin; that when they awoke the window was open and Nevin was missing.

Nevin, who was 29 years old and a member of a socially prominent Philadelphia family, was graduated from Princeton in 1917.

Want to Get Into The Fight

NEW ORLEANS, La., December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—New Orleans is beginning to be the scene for soldiers of fortune all with the same purpose, "getting into Mexico as quickly as possible, and into the revolution on the best terms possible."

Throughout the day, at the Mexican consulate and at the headquarters set up by Teodoro Preziosi, agent of the de la Huerta faction, these venturesome persons seek connection. Either factions—Poderis or revolutionists, Obregon or de la Huerta—it makes little difference to most of them. What they want is to get into the fight. But neither faction apparently is interested in recruiting work.

Posse Kills Negro Farmer Who Killed Three And Wounded Nine

DREW, MISS., December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Joe Pullen, negro tenant farmer, died early today from the effects of a score of machine gun bullets after he had battled a posse of several hundred men for seven hours, killing three men and wounding nine others, three of them probably fatally. Machine guns were used to kill Pullen after he had hidden in a ditch.

The trouble started yesterday when Pullen shot and killed W. T. Sanders, after an argument over a debt. When chased by a posse, Pullen proved the better shot.

In addition to Sanders, the two men listed as dead are L. L. McElvin, 55, and a man named Bess. Both were members of the posse which took up the pursuit shortly after Sanders was shot to death when he went to the negro's cabin to arrange a business settlement.

A. L. Manning, 35, and Kenneth Blackwood, 35, were seriously wounded. Both were given emergency treatment and rushed to hospitals.

After killing Sanders, Pullen ran to his home, obtained a shotgun and ammunition and took to the cane broke. The other men who were killed or wounded were struck by bullets while chasing the negro.

Coolidge Expresses His Appreciation

WASHINGTON, December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—President Coolidge has written a letter to Samuel Elford, former secretary of South Dakota expressing his appreciation of the action of the recent South Dakota proposal convention in granting him the preferential endorsement.

The letter was described at the White House today as more or less of a personal nature and its text was withheld. It does not state whether the president will enter the South Dakota primaries to be held March 25, but a conference of some of those active in the Coolidge campaign will be held here Monday to arrange for the formal application to be forwarded.

Earlier the South Dakota law the candidate endorsed by the proposal convention must accept the endorsement of a majority of the voters of the state to contest in the primary by January 1.

Announcement also is expected that Hoke Donithan, of Marion, a close friend of the late President Harding, has been selected to look after the Coolidge interests in Ohio.

No Condition Attached To Release Of The Men

WASHINGTON, December 15.—(By the United Press)—President Coolidge today commuted the sentences of 31 political prisoners remaining in Federal jails. The clemency was unconditional. Warrants are being prepared by the department of justice and the men will be freed as soon as the documents can be delivered to the wardens of Leavenworth and Atlanta prisons.

These violators of war laws were convicted at Chicago, Mar. 1920, and Sacramento. Their release had been recommended by a special committee.

All of the convictions were on substantially the same charges. Department of Justice Records show, that these charges included "conspiracy by force to prevent, hinder and delay the prosecution of the war" and to "intimidate citizens in their legal and constitutional right in furnishing war supplies to the government" and conspiracy to violate the espionage laws by attempting "to cause insubordination, disloyalty and refusal to military duty by personal solicitation." The general charge of obstructing the draft also was made in most of the cases.

The defendants appealed in all instances. The Chicago circuit court of appeals modified the lower court decision to a limited extent and the circuit court in Kansas City affirmed but one count of the four upon which conviction was obtained. The court of appeals in California affirmed all counts appealed from the district court in Sacramento.

Escaped Convicts And Officers In Gun Battle

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., December 15.—(By the Associated Press)—Norman (Red) Ryan, escaped Canadian convict, was shot and captured, and four others wounded in a gun fight between the police and five alleged bandits in front of the Minneapolis post office last night. Four of the bandits escaped.

One is thought to have been shot. The convict handles were traced here and apprehended when Ryan went to the postoffice to get his mail. He was arrested and handcuffed. Out side of the building his pals engaged the officers in a gun battle.

Court Plan Starts Row On Nations League

By DAVID LAWRENCE.
(Copyright 1923)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—The next step in the controversy over the world court is the submission by the United States Senate of the alternative plan which can be transmitted by the other governments of the world to determine whether they would approve it.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge's announcement that he will not vote for American adherence to the present court because of its relationship to the League of Nations does not come as a surprise to President Coolidge who was aware of Mr. Lodge's attitude before the first Presidential message to Congress was made public.

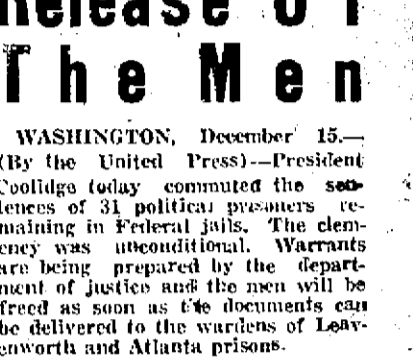

Mr. Coolidge told Senator Lodge that he would not oppose any effort to set up a world court separated from the League of Nations and if the other governments of the world would do likewise, the United States would help toward the formation of a court acceptable to all. But the president doubted whether the other Nations would agree. He feels that the present world court plan is the only one on which the nations of the world have ever agreed and rather than have no court at all, he prefers the one already established.

It's the same old dispute over "the League of Nations and the League of Nations." Mr. Lodge originally announced that he wanted to see a

Mistreat Bull; Two Men Arrested

Police received several urgent calls from the vicinity of Massie street about 10:30 Saturday morning that men were dragging a bull through the street. Officers Dan Miller, Investigator and found that Harry Jennings, 20, and Marion Tackett, about 17, from a West Side dairy farm, were bringing a load of cattle to the city when a bull tied behind a wagon fell.

Effort to get the bull on his feet failed and the wagon was driven ahead in an effort to get the bull on his feet. Women seeing the animal being pulled this way with a ring in his nose and the nose bleeding telephoned the police. Officer Miller placed the two in charge under arrest on charges of cruelty to animals. Later Humane Officer Harry Bull filed charges. Jennings and Tackett were released on bonds of $100 each. Jennings will be tried in Municipal court Monday and Tackett will be tried in the juvenile court. On being released Jennings was warned about further mistreatment of the animal as residents in that neighborhood might take a hand in the matter and mistreat him. Officers Barnham and Hawkins assisted in getting the bull back on his feet.

Success of Charity Ball Last Night Means Elks Will Distribute Well Filled Baskets

Elks' Christmas baskets for the needy will be filled to overflowing this year as a result of the success of their annual Charity Ball last night. Between eight hundred and one thousand dollars was turned over to the committee before the dance was over, and a few who had tickets to sell have not yet made their reports.

More than 300 couples danced to the music of the Roseland Orchestra at the Elks' club and to the strains of Bauman's Orchestra at the academy. The Elks wish to express their appreciation of the fact that the use of the latter hall was donated for the sake of charity.

The next step in the Elks' program is the securing of a list of the needy families to be supplied with baskets. Flour, meat, sugar, coffee and provisions to last a family for three days will be packed in this year's baskets. Much of the success of the ball was due to the committee, which included Frank J. Duschinski, Howard Gehres and Ben Reinsner.

N. & W. TRAIN HITS AUTO; THREE DIE

CINCINNATI, Dec. 15.—Three persons were killed and two others seriously injured yesterday when their automobile was struck by a train at a grade crossing in Hyde Park, a suburb of Cincinnati.

The dead are S. L. Mullikin, Cincinnati, publisher, and his 19-year-old daughter, Elizabeth Mullikin, a student at the University of Cincinnati and daughter, Ruth, aged 20; Mary Louise, another daughter, was seriously injured.

Mr. Mullikin, who was president of the A. Mullikin Company, publishers, was driving his automobile toward the crossing.

According to Mary Louise, who was the least seriously injured, ice and snow had encrusted the windshield and windows of the automobile, and this interfered with a clear view by the occupants. Before they knew it, Miss Mullikin said they had run headlong into the train.

The death of Mr. Mullikin and his daughter increased the death toll due to automobile accidents in Hamilton county this year to 126.

The N. & W. train, which snuffed out the lives of S. L. Mullikin and two daughters, is known as No. 37, the afternoon local N. & W., which leaves here daily at 2:10 p. m. for Cincinnati, arriving there at 6:10 p. m. Yesterday it was in charge of Engineer Jake Krappe and Conductor G. R. Bateman, of this city.

Davis Murder Case Starts Monday

Attorneys A. Z. Blair and Guy Blair will leave Sunday for Hillsboro, where they will appear with Attorney Frank Shively, of West Union, in the defense of Robert Davis, who will be brought to trial in the Highland county Common Pleas Court Monday morning under a change of venue on a charge of first degree murder for the killing of George Webb, in October, 1922, near Seaman.

Several months ago a jury in the Adams county Common Pleas Court found Davis guilty as charged, and he was sentenced to be electrocuted.

Attorney C. E. Roebuck will assist Prosecutor J. R. B. Kessler in handling the case for the state.

Suit in Partition
Suit to partition real estate left of the estate of Mary J. Davis, deceased, was brought by Anna F. Morrow, suing through Attorneys Willis and Jones, Wellington, in Common Pleas court today, against Grace E. Mills, Laura Williams Cox, Grace Williams, Thomas J. Williams and Paul Williams.

In her petition plaintiff says that by the terms of the will of the decedent, duly admitted to probate, the premises involved, consisting of a house and lot on Findlay street, near Ninth, was devised to plaintiff and defendants, nieces and nephews of decedent, and she asks for a decree confirming the respective shares of the parties and for partition according to their respective rights.

Am Brothers Accused
Emmett Arn, 15, and Lee Arn, 13, son of Mike Arn, of near Wheelersburg, will be required to appear in Juvenile court Tuesday to answer to delinquency complaints made against them in connection with alleged interfering with railroad safety appliances.

The youths, who were taken into custody by Detectives Leslie and Pratt following an investigation, are accused of tying down a paddle on a signal post, near Lighthouse Beach, and which resulted in the interference of traffic on the N. & W. as it is claimed that five trains were stopped at that point one night recently because of the red light, or danger signal, showing by reason of the tying down of the paddle.

The youths admit stopping the trains, it is said, for the purpose of stealing coal from the cars.

Ordered to Pay Alimony
Following a hearing in Common Pleas court today, Oscar Carpenter, brickworker, was ordered by Judge Thomas to pay his wife, Pearl Carpenter, the sum of $12.50 a week as temporary alimony, pending the final hearing of her suit for divorce and alimony, and the defendant was ordered to stay away from the plaintiff's home on Boundary street and not molest her until the case can be heard on its merits.

Attorney W. L. Dickey for the wife and Attorney C. F. Higgins for Carpenter.

Suit on Notes
Mose Phipps, Wannie Phipps and

Walter Montgomery are defendants in a suit brought in Common Pleas court today by The National Sewing Machine Company, suing through Attorneys Blair and Blair, seeking to collect the sum of $275, claimed to be due on promissory notes, with interest from Nov. 21, 1922, and to foreclose a mortgage on real estate, given to secure payment. The premises involved consists of 0.5 acres situated in Morgan township.

To Foreclose Mortgage
Furst & Thomas against Milton Tackett, Mary Tackett, George Winters and Thomas Montgomery, is the style of an action brought in Common Pleas court today in which the plaintiff seeks to recover the sum of $250, claimed to be due on a promissory note and to foreclose a mortgage on real estate, consisting of farm land situated in Jefferson township. Plaintiff sued through Attorneys Blair and Blair.

Charges Cruelty and Infidelity
Alleging cruelty and infidelity and naming one Anna Bates, Mabel Dobbins seeks divorce and restoration to her maiden name of Thomson in an action instituted in Common Pleas court Saturday against Ray Dobbins, 1233 Eighth street, whom she married in Williamson, W. Va., December 1917.

Plaintiff in her petition filed through Attorney W. L. Hostetter, says the Dobbins on or about January 1923, began associating and committing adultery with the Bates woman and declares that he has continued to do so to the present time. She asks that she be restored to her maiden name and that she be compelled to leave defendant three times because of these alleged improper relations with the "other woman," but says that each time she took him back on his promises to do better. The wife then claims that on Dec. 1 last they quarreled about the other woman, and complains that Dobbins assaulted and beat her with his fist and cut her clothes with a knife.

New Trial Denied
After hearing arguments of counsel, Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court Saturday overruled the motion of the defense for a new trial in the case of Mary J. See against The Portsmouth Street Railway & Light company.

Mrs. See sued for $1,173.00 for personal injuries she sustained in a fall from a street car at Gallia street and Market Road on Oct. 23, 1910, and she was awarded $887.22 by a Common Pleas court jury at trial of the case recently.

Verdict For Defendant
It required a Common Pleas court jury less than thirty minutes Saturday morning to bring in a verdict in favor of the defendant in the personal injury damage suit of Mrs. Mary Thomas, 1220 Union street, against The Portsmouth Street Railway & Light company.

Verdict of the case started before the case went to the jury at nine o'clock this morning following the court's general charge. A short time later the jury turned its verdict, concurred in by the entire panel, into court.

Plaintiff sued for $3,000 on a claim for injuries which she sustained in a fall from a street car in New Boston last July, claiming that the accident resulted from the car starting forward before she was alighted. The defense contended she jumped from the car while it was still moving and thereby caused her own injury, and the jury evidently took this view.

Attorneys Pearl Elcheberger, who with Judge A. Z. Blair represented plaintiff, promptly gave notice of a motion for a new trial. Attorney Miller & Seari appeared for the defense.

League of nations. This alternative was looked upon by many voters as satisfactory but when the Versailles covenant of the League finally was defeated in the Senate, no alternative proposal was sponsored by the Republican majority.

The controversy over the world court starts the same way. Mr. Lodge is against "the" world court but favors "a" world court. Mr. Coolidge and Secretary Hughes feel "the" court is the only practicable plan but they are even minded about a substitute. The burden of action however now falls on the Senate. Mr. Lodge has said that he does not know whether the present world court can be divorced from the League of Nations. He does not indicate whether he will support it if the other nations of the world decline to accept the counter proposal of the United States. But the President and Secretary of State would like to have any counter proposal so that they could promptly ascertain the viewpoint of the other governments of the world.

This will take considerable time and the chances are the negotiation will not be completed until after the Presidential election for diplomacy doesn't move very rapidly and besides there is no particular urgency in the Senate for framing a sub plan as those who oppose the present world court will insist that domestic matters should have the right of way. The lack of reservations to the protocol already before the Senate Foreign Relations committee is a foregone conclusion but the reservations proposed by Mr. Hughes would simply amount to a statement that the United States by its approval does not adhere to the League of Nations. What Mr. Lodge has in mind are reservations that would if accepted by the other powers of the world actually change the constitution of the court.

Keep in line with the times. Be consistent. Give something—worth while—and at no more outlay.

New Boston

An interesting meeting of the C. W. B. M. of the Ohio Avenue Christian Church, was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. S. Randolph, on Grace street.

The forecast of the evening was devoted to the business session, after which the social hour was enjoyed, later a tempting three-course lunch was served.

Mrs. Thomas Brown remains seriously ill at her home in North Moreland.

Members of the Loyal Daughters' Class, of the Ohio Avenue Christian Church, will meet Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Roxie Kiser, on Rhodes avenue.

Mrs. Mary Hauld is seriously ill with typhoid fever at her home on Stanton avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Riegel, of Gallia avenue, has recovered from an illness of several days.

Miss Virginia Matthews will receive the members of the Busy Bee Sewing Club at her home on Eighth street Wednesday evening.

Carl Wilkerson, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilkerson, of 3335 Stanton avenue, is ill with pneumonia and whooping cough.

Quail and Pearl Stone, of Stanton avenue, who have been seriously ill with typhoid fever, are improving.

To Teach Class
On account of the sad misfortune of Rev. Culberson it was necessary to secure a teacher for the adult department of First Christian Bible school for Sunday morning and the officers immediately invited H. P. Kimble, of the Second Presbyterian church to do the job for which he was most graciously consented to do.

Mr. Kimble has visited First Christian a number of times and he has always been given a great reception, and no doubt as many as hear of his coming again Sunday will be out to enjoy his presentation of the lesson.

Part Time Proposal
Most notable of the matters before the Board, otherwise than the North Moreland proposition, was recommendation by C. H. Brechner, superintendent of the part-time vocational training classes, that such training be made compulsory for all persons between the ages of 16 and 18, who leave school and start to work by the aid of working certificates from the superintendent of schools. The proposal was sidetracked, to be revived and possibly experimented with during the approaching semester.

One Candidate Is Initiated
One candidate was initiated at the weekly meeting of Portsmouth Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, last night. Plans were also discussed for a big class affair, to be held the first of the year. An invitation from Delta Camp, Royal Neighbors to hold a joint installation of officers about the second week in January was accepted.

Vaughn Explains; Given Freedom
James Vaughn, Front street, was arrested on a charge of drunkenness late Friday night, but in Municipal court Saturday the charge was dismissed, when the young man proved that he was gassed while fighting overseas and that he was only in the midst of one of his mental spells when taken into custody and was not intoxicated.

Step Taken Toward New North Moreland School; Rowdy Boys Will Be Curbed

Further discussion of the North Moreland school problem and the taking of steps to curb the rowdy boys who disturb meetings in the high school, and to improve the main business before the City Board of Education Friday night, The North Moreland discussion resulted in the appointment of a new committee on site for a new school in that addition. When Dr. E. C. Jackson, who with Superintendent Frank Appel, formed the site committee, reported that his days on the Board were but few, W. H. Altman made a motion that a new site committee be appointed. President Jackson then named Mrs. Albert Moring, Marvin Clark and W. H. Altman, all of whom will remain on the Board after the first of the year.

Sept. Appel reported a conference with Dr. O. D. Tipton, health commissioner, and plumbing inspector William West, in which the two officials pointed out that "very unsatisfactory" conditions exist at the North Moreland school, which is being conducted tentatively, but no action was taken, pending filing of a formal report or order from either official.

Provision was made for janitor service at the temporary North Moreland school, at a rate of $20 a month.

The Daniels-Hunt Construction Co. reported their work on the High School and Lincoln buildings completed, offering in support of the final bill, the architect's certificate, verified by Supt. of Buildings Walter Koegel. The final estimate, $9,448.41, was therefore ordered placed on the schedule for payment. Equipment contracts, not included by the construction company, are being completed.

Inadequate heating in several rooms of the Union street school was reported, and Mr. Koegel was authorized to purchase one additional radiator for installation there. His recommendation that blast furnaces be adapted for playground use, as an experiment, and $100 appropriated for this use. Mr. Koegel pointed out that such use will be an economy, due to the cost of gravel.

He also reported renting the two houses adjoining Offshore street school, at $100 a month, for $40 and $15 each, following unsuccessful efforts to obtain a higher rental.

To Employ Watchman
Vandalism and rowdy acts at the high school on nights when it is opened for entertainments or other usage were discussed after called to attention by Mr. Scudder, seconded by the authorizing act, which carried by a unanimous vote. Previous to passage of the motion, Mr. Altman recommended the name of sergeant Tom Albrecht of the police force as a suitable candidate for the position. An appointment was made and a salary was not fixed, but it was suggested that the salary be about $125 per month.

Continued profitable operation of the high school cafeteria was reported. Receipts during the twenty school days of November were $790.91, in excess of $100 over the budget. The net credit to $3,019.47, expenses leaving a net profit for the month of $92.45, which was applied to the deficit remaining from the bluffs expense of starting the place, which is now reduced to $23,635.

Provision was made for janitor service at the temporary North Moreland school, at a rate of $20 a month.

The Daniels-Hunt Construction Co. reported their work on the High School and Lincoln buildings completed, offering in support of the final bill, the architect's certificate, verified by Supt. of Buildings Walter Koegel. The final estimate, $9,448.41, was therefore ordered placed on the schedule for payment. Equipment contracts, not included by the construction company, are being completed.

Inadequate heating in several rooms of the Union street school was reported, and Mr. Koegel was authorized to purchase one additional radiator for installation there. His recommendation that blast furnaces be adapted for playground use, as an experiment, and $100 appropriated for this use. Mr. Koegel pointed out that such use will be an economy, due to the cost of gravel.

He also reported renting the two houses adjoining Offshore street school, at $100 a month, for $40 and $15 each, following unsuccessful efforts to obtain a higher rental.

To Employ Watchman
Vandalism and rowdy acts at the high school on nights when it is opened for entertainments or other usage were discussed after called to attention by Mr. Scudder, seconded by the authorizing act, which carried by a unanimous vote. Previous to passage of the motion, Mr. Altman recommended the name of sergeant Tom Albrecht of the police force as a suitable candidate for the position. An appointment was made and a salary was not fixed, but it was suggested that the salary be about $125 per month.

Continued profitable operation of the high school cafeteria was reported. Receipts during the twenty school days of November were $790

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl of 16 and have a certain man very much. Dolly, he is 19 years of age. Do you think he is too old for me? I met him last May and have gone with him off and on ever since but I don't think he likes me. Dolly, I realize that I am too young to even think of being in love, but what can I do, as he is on my mind continually. I want away and stay a month thinking I would forget him, but as absence makes the heart grow fonder, it only made me more anxious to see him. It would help me a great deal if you would advise me.

PUPPY LOVE.
The man is not too old for you, but you are too young for him, and since you are sensible enough to realize this, I should think you would have the power enough to control your feelings, until you are old enough to have a real love affair. If you will read, and study and keep busy you won't have so much time to think of this man. He does not seem to be worrying about you, so why worry about him?

Dear Miss Wise—We used to take a magazine, which we subscribed for two years. Though I was small then, I still remember of reading it, which proved to be a real good paper. Now Dolly, the name of this paper was "The Little Folks Magazine," if I remember right. Now I have a real good story that I have written, and would like to send it to this company. Is there such a paper now published, and if so, what is the address.

THANK YOU.
The Little Folks Magazine is published in Salem, Mass.

Dear Dolly—As I am from the country and have not been here very long, I hear children talking about passing parties. Please tell me what they are and what would be suitable to take to one.

MILLIE Y.
A passing party is nothing but an exchange of Christmas presents. Each guest brings a daintily wrapped gift and they are usually passed from one to the other until they make the rounds several times and then they all open them to see what they have gotten. As a rule they try to have gifts costing the same, say twenty or fifty cents.

Dear Dolly—Could you suggest a pretty salad for the holiday season? I would like something pretty and easy to prepare, as I am going to have a family dinner on Christmas day, and also a party some afternoon.

YOUNG MATRON.

How about a poinsettia salad? Arrange lettuce on plates, lay a round slice of pineapple on each leaf. Place narrow strips of pineapple on each slice of pineapple, radiating from the center to the edge of the slice like the leaves of a poinsettia. In the center of each slice heap a pile of salad dressing thickened with an equal amount of whipped cream. Serve with salty wafers, in case you want to serve at a party.

THANK YOU.—The first three things you mentioned are fattening but there is nothing in the last article that would add an ounce to your weight. The powder you mentioned is considered very satisfactory, and also their could creams, perfume, etc. I have been using them myself and like them fine.

Dear Miss Wise—Is there a limit on foreigners coming into this country every year or can as many as want to come.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

DADDY GANDER

Instantly the magic dustpan rose and floated out of the door.

When the twins got to the Fairy Queen's palace, who should be waiting for them but a fat, jolly looking person in a green suit.

The most remarkable thing about him was a dustpan that he kept tucked under one arm.

"Nancy, Nick!" said the Fairy Queen lovingly, for she had become very fond of her little twin children. "I want you to meet one of my oldest friends, Mother Goose's husband, Daddy Gander. Daddy Gander, Nancy and Nick! Nancy and Nick, Daddy Gander!"

Nancy bowed and Nick bowed and Daddy Gander bowed and everybody bowed. And after they had finished bowing and saying how glad everybody was to meet everybody else, the Fairy Queen went on:

"Daddy Gander wants you to go home with him. He lives in a place named after him called, 'Daddy Gander Land.'"

"Mother Goose lives in Mother Goose Land, doesn't she?" inquired Nancy. "And if you are her husband, sir, how can you live in Daddy Gander Land?"

Mister Daddy Gander laid a finger beside his funny nose and winked one of his funny eyes.

"How?" he remarked. "Easy as pie. I just turn the sign around. When Missus Goose is coming home, and while she's home, I put out the sign that says, 'Mother Goose, Her Land.'"

But when she's off on one of her trips, I get Tom Tinker and we take down the sign and turn it around and hang it up again. And it says, 'Daddy Gander Land.'"

Mrs. A. Helm of Franklin Boulevard, is home from a visit with her daughter, Miss Florence Helm, who attends Columbia University, New York City, and with other relatives there.

Miss Marjorie Boren has returned to Columbus having visited here for several days with relatives.

The members of the Justamore Club were entertained on Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Chas. J. Hancock on Offshore Street. The time passed pleasantly over needlework, and concluded with refreshments.

The next meeting, on Friday afternoon, January 11, will be held at the home of Mrs. Chris Rice on Hutchings Street.

Apprentice in a picturesque costume, such as is worn by the peasants on festival occasions, Mrs. Samuel Horchow told in a charming and interesting manner of her extensive travels in Europe, giving glimpses into the lives of the people of that country, particularly those who inhabit the Carpathian mountain district, to the members of the Woman's Literary Club Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. E. Seig on Third Street. To illustrate her talk Mrs. Horchow exhibited a wonderful collection of costumes, handwoven linens, shawls and other apparel made by the peasants.

She also described the ancient city of Krakow, the capital of the Polish Kingdom, and exhibited many interesting pictures of this quaint old city. In speaking of the national and patriotic hymns, Mrs. Horchow said that, despite their early years, there was a strain of melancholy running through them that Americans could not help but notice. Following her talk, which was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated, Miss Esther Sevringhaus took her place at the piano and played the national hymns and folk songs, which added much to the program.

Three new members were welcomed into the Club, Mrs. Irene Timme, Mrs. Rachael Armstrong and Mrs. Edith Brecher.

During the delightful social which followed, a big refreshment course was served by Mrs. Seig and her assistants, Mrs. Jennie Dickey, Mrs. C. E. Reed and Miss Fess Platt.

The next meeting of the club will be held on January 11th at the home of Mrs. L. D. Allard, Eighth and Gay streets, and will be in the form of a musicale.

The regular meeting of the Eastern Stars will be held on Tuesday evening in their hall, sixth floor of the Masonic Temple. After the business meeting a Christmas tree party will be held, and those wishing to participate are asked to bring a fifty cent gift.

Gander. His Land!" "Oh, I see!" laughed Nick. "It's all one and the same place."

"Sweetest thing you know," laughed Daddy Gander winking again. And he looked so funny they all laughed. And then they went on laughing until it looked as though there wasn't going to be another twin adventure to write about, except a laughing party, for days to come.

It was Nancy who sobered up first. "What's so funny about it?" she asked suddenly.

"Why, why, why—" panted Daddy Gander, who was as fat as his wife was thin, and round as she was sharp.

"Why, I don't remember. But it just seems that every time I open my mouth everybody laughs."

"What is your dustpan for, please, sir?" asked Nick.

"Oh, that!" exclaimed Daddy Gander in a surprised voice, as though he didn't know he had it. "Why, that is, you see, I always carry it for fear Missus Goose might return unexpectedly and ask me where it is. I use it to, gather up her sweepings and she's always sweeping. But say, do you want to go home with me? We can all get on my magic dustpan and be there in a jiffy."

"We'd love to go!" cried the twins. Instantly the dustpan spread out until it was as big as a carpet.

"Jump on!" said Daddy Gander. And all three of them squatted down on it like Arabs.

Instantly the magic dustpan rose and floated out of the door.

THE CHILDREN AT CHRISTMAS TIME

The mother of these four children says that she has used Father John's Medicine for the past twenty years and in cases of severe colds she believes it has no equal. In a recent letter she said, "I have used Father John's Medicine for twenty years. I know of its value and used it long before I was married. I have given it to all of my four children and for croup and severe colds I think it is very good." (signed) Mrs. Rose G. Kuffe, White Plains, N. Y.

Millions of mothers depend on Father John's Medicine to keep their children well and strong and to restore their strength after any illness. They know that it has had more than 60 years of success for colds and coughs and as a tonic and body builder.

MAH-JONGG

BY J. P. BABCOCK

Leading Mah Jongg Authority and Author of Babcock's Red Book of Rules

No. 6—Four-of-a-Kind. I have explained the main principles in the play of Mah Jongg. Today I will finish this by explaining four-of-a-kind.

Remember that there is no such thing in Mah Jongg as a four-run sequence, and that the following applies only to four of a kind.

I stated in a previous article that the winning hand was one consisting of four sets of three (either three-of-a-kind or sequences) and a pair. This is subject to one variation, the holding of one or more sets of four-of-a-kind. Thus a winning hand may be composed of a pair, three-run sequences and a four of a kind; a pair and four sets of four-of-a-kind; three three-of-a-kind, a pair and four of a kind; a pair, a three-run sequence, a three of a kind, two four-of-a-kind; etc.

You will notice from this that a four-of-a-kind will substitute for three of a kind, and also that, for each four of a kind, you have one more tile than the customary 14. Thus a winning hand with one four of a kind will contain 15 tiles; with two four-of-a-kind, 16 tiles, etc.

"Loose Tiles" These extra tiles are the "loose tiles" placed on top of the wall at the beginning of play. For each four of a kind, he who draws it immediately (before his discard) draws one of the loose tiles. Should both be used, two more are taken from the immediate right of the opening and placed on top of the wall.

A player can pung a fourth to three of a kind which he holds in his hand. But he cannot pung a fourth to three of a kind which he has exposed, that is, which he has placed face upward on the table before him after a pung or Chow.

However, should a player draw a fourth in an exposed three, he can place the fourth with them, and draw a loose tile to fill his hand. This has no effect on the play, but will serve as an "exposed four" when scores for the hand are computed.

Optional Play. A player, holding three of a kind in his hand and drawing a fourth from the wall has the option of continuing to hold them concealed, or of "exposing" them by placing them before him. If he keeps them concealed, he does not draw a loose tile. When he exposes them, he turns the two end tiles face down to indicate that the four will score as "four in the hand" at the end of the game. After exposing them he draws a loose tile. It is obvious that a player holding a foursome in his hand cannot Mah Jongg and still keep the four intact.

But sometimes a player elects to hold the four on a chance that, by using one of the four in some different combination, he will make Mah Jongg. However, should the hand end with him still holding the four in his hand, they score only as "three of a kind."

Next article: The Score.

Little Miss Eleonora Allen of 1637 Twelfth street delightfully entertained a group of her little friends recently with a birthday party, it being her ninth birthday anniversary. She received many beautiful and useful gifts. The afternoon was spent in games and music, and with little Miss Ruth Savory entertaining with her lovely, fascinating dancing, after which they were invited to the dining room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After they were seated around the table a course of pink ice cream and cake was served to the following: Frank Pulsing, Charles Donath, Harold Newman, Russell Cook, Christine Kline, Homer McGillicuddy, Lester Abels, Lucy Kautitz, Janet Bennett, Edith Bullock, Albert Engelt, Dorothy Willis, Elizabeth Crain and Louise Dabney.

At five o'clock they all departed, wishing little Miss Eleonora many more happy birthdays and a very merry Christmas.

Mooseheart Legion will meet on Tuesday night at their hall, Third and Washington streets. All members are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cox of 512 Union street had as dinner guests Thursday evening Miss Ruth Carver and Mr. Vernon Ruth.

Mrs. C. D. Hill of Union Street, has just returned from Texas, having been called there by the death of her mother, Mrs. Willard Hill, who passed away on Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Blum (Alta Marsh) of New Stauffer, is here for a visit with her mother, Mrs. E. C. Marsh, of Eleventh Street. Mr. Blum will join her later for the holidays.

The Chizen Scouts met Friday night at Scout headquarters to dress dolls for Christmas. The girls have accomplished a great deal since doing this work, and have a number of attractively dressed dolls ready for distribution.

The members of Section 4 of the First Christian Church held a social meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edgar Jones on Eleventh Street.

During the business meeting the following officers were elected: President—Mrs. Edgar Jones. Secretary—Mrs. Willy Pilon. Treasurer—Mrs. John Copus.

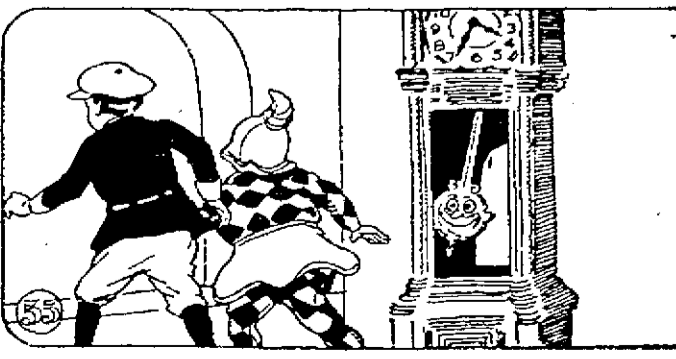

The retiring president, Mrs. Chas. Browning, was given a pretty workbasket and linen table cloth as a token of appreciation for her efforts in the last year. A passing party preceded the serving of a salad course.

The members of Mrs. John P. Smith's Class of Trinity M. E. Church enjoyed a pretty Christmas party Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ira Martin on Washington Street.

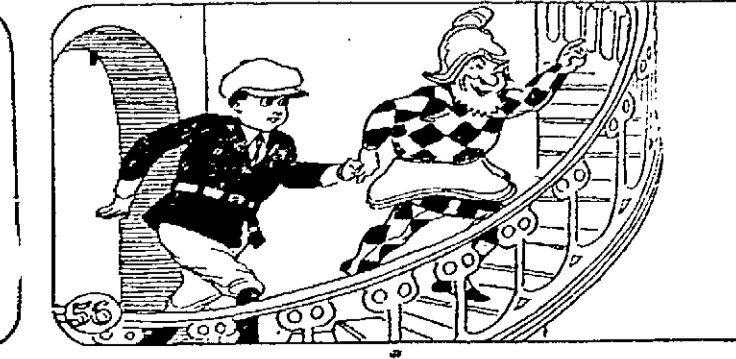

Christmas decorations added to the cheerfulness of the occasion, and the thirty members present enjoyed a program of Victor music and readings. Mrs. Martin was assisted by Mrs. H. W. Munson, Mrs. W. K. Dunne, Mrs. Mary Gustin, and Mrs. H. C. Adams.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Newland, 1421 Seventeenth Street.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — IN THE TOWER OF TICKS

As the great clock ticked away, Ticky turned to Jack and said, "There you are, young man! Now you have seen how a grandfather-clock is made. Is there anything else you would like to see in the Tower of Ticks?" Jack hesitated and then replied, "Why, yes, I'd like to see some other kind of clocks."

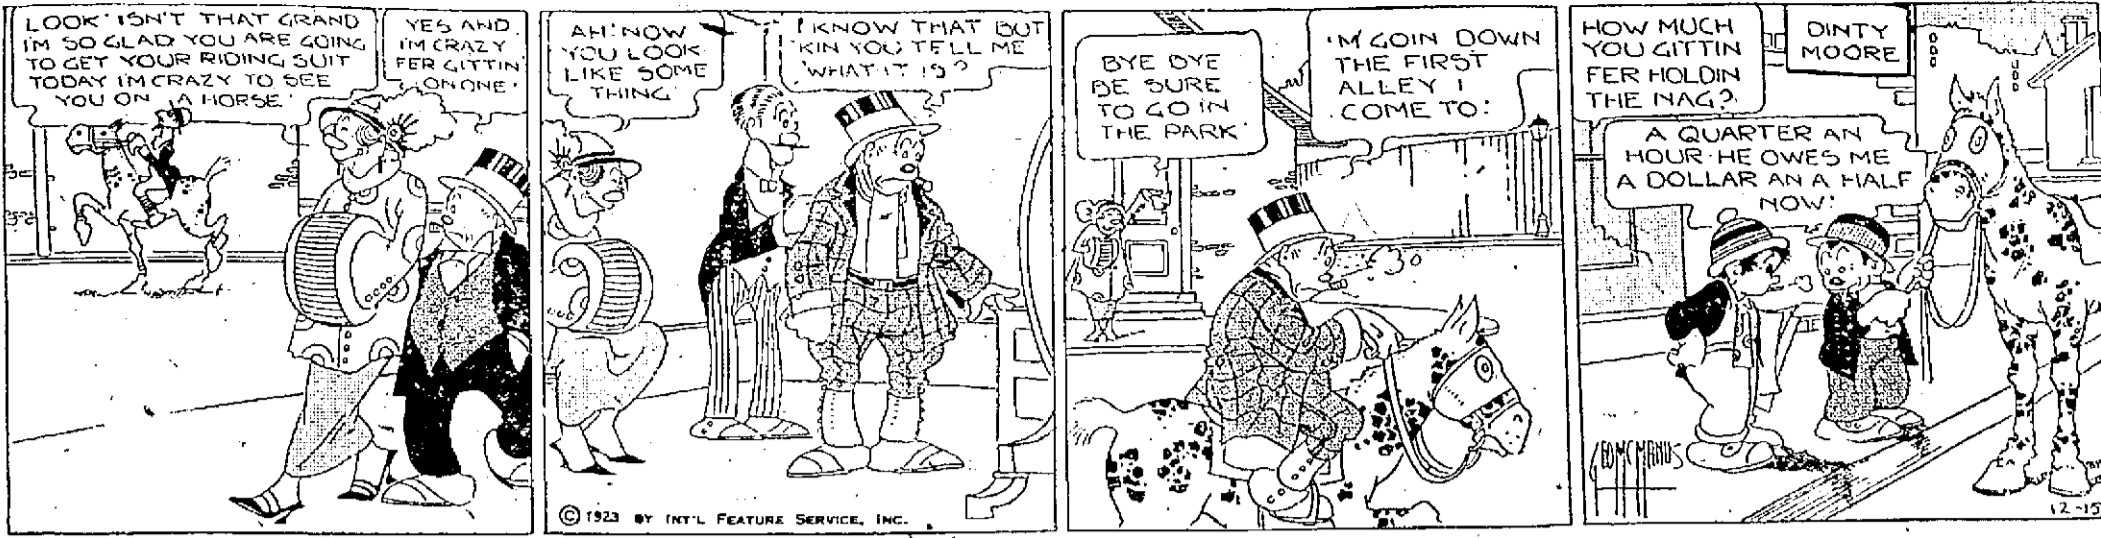

And almost as he said it, Ticky grabbed him by the hand and started walking rapidly up a winding stairway. "Where are we going now?" asked Jack. "Right up to Sleepy Castle," replied Ticky. "That's the only place you can see one of the members of the great clock family. You'll like this one."

Shortly Ticky had led Jack through a door and into a room where there were a lot of cots and beds. "Now, in order to meet this clock, you have to lie down and fall asleep," explained Ticky. So Jack flopped down on one of the cots. Soon he was fast asleep and he drifted into dreamland. (Continued)

TRIES TO WIPE SNOW OFF WINDSHIELD;
DRIVER HIT; CAR LEAVES ROAD, TURNS OVER

Gravelly Ramsey and Joseph Spriggs of Sargents, Colo. county, sustained minor cuts and bruises a couple of days ago, when the Ford touring car in which they were riding plunged off Seltos Trail, near the Lucasville fair grounds, and turned over. Howard Nutt, also of Sargents, who was in the rear seat, escaped unhurt.

The accident resulted from Spriggs attempting to wipe snow off the windshield and in doing so struck Ramsey, who was driving, in the eye, causing him to lose control of the machine.

BARE-LEG DANCES
MAY RESULT IN CHURCH SECEDING

NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—The possibility of secession from the Episcopal Church of St. Mark's in the Bowdoin as a result of Bishop Manning's request to Dr. William N. Gulliver to do away with bare-legged dancing and other moribund ceremonies in this church, was discussed today by vestrymen of St. Mark's. They will meet soon to determine whether they can conscientiously make the changes demanded by Bishop Manning, it was said.

"It might be wiser for us to concede something," said Chas. B. Bayley, treasurer of the church, "but if we can't concede all that Bishop Manning insists upon we are in such a condition financially that we could secede."

2 U. S. Note Issues
Are Over-Subscribed

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—Subscriptions to the two issues of certificates of indebtedness constituting the treasury's program of December financing aggregate more than two and one-half times the amount asked. It was announced tonight by Secretary Mellon. The two issues, one maturing next June 15, and the other maturing in one year from December 15, the date of both issues, were for about $300,000,000, but the subscriptions total $735,000,000.

Of the total subscriptions, $300,000,000 represent subscriptions for which treasury certificates maturing December 15, were tendered in payment. All of these subscriptions will be allotted in full, according to the announcement, which said that details of other allotments had not been completed.

Court Acts Against Big Ohio Dope Ring

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—Federal court action against one of the largest dope selling rings ever discovered in this section was begun today when a grand jury returned indictments against six residents of Mt. Victory, O.

During the period between July and December, 1921, the indictment states, 10,130 grains of narcotics were disposed of by the alleged combination.

Dr. J. J. Boor, Dr. B. A. Martin and his wife, O. C. Pettiford and Calvin A. Trapp, the latter two being veterinarians, are the persons charged with conspiracy. Narcotics were obtained through Dr. Boone. Narcotic Agent Stanley investigated the case two years ago, but action was delayed pending the arrest of Trapp.

Wire Has Evidence

LOHAIN, O., Dec. 15.—But for interference by his wife, an intoxication charge would have been dismissed against Suben Adams, aged 22, today. As Municipal Judge W. F. Strenick was about to release him, Mrs. Adams produced a bottle of liquor which she said belonged to her husband. Unable to pay $200 fine and costs, Adams was placed in jail.

Removal of Some Canton
Officials Is Recommended

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—Attorney General C. C. Crabbe today advised Gov. Donahy that he does "not feel" the evidence at hand shows a condition in this city such as would require the impeachment of a special grand jury. Aside from the criminal aspect of the situation, a condition is disclosed by the investigation that tends to undermine the influence of the department of public safety and to demoralize the enforcement of law in that city.

"Regardless of whether there may be developed sufficient evidence to sustain charges of bribery against the safety director, E. E. Curtis, it is suggested that the question in Canton is such with relation to the enforcement of law as to warrant consideration on your part of removal of certain officials."

At Gov. Donahy's direction Mr. Crabbe made an investigation of alleged bribery involving Safety Director E. E. Curtis, complaints of which were supported by affidavits filed with the governor. The attorney general spent several days in Canton himself and supplemented the inquiry by sending one of his assistants, H. H. Griskowid, who also made an investigation.

Not Sufficient Evidence.

The attorney general's report to Gov. Donahy said: "At the present time I do not feel that the evidence at hand shows a condition in this city such as would require the impeachment of a special grand jury. Aside from the criminal aspect of the situation, a condition is disclosed by the investigation that tends to undermine the influence of the department of public safety and to demoralize the enforcement of law in that city."

Names Advisory Board for Fish and Game Division

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—Director of Agriculture Truax today named an advisory board for the fish and game division, headed by John P. Nais of Dayton, president of the Ohio division of the League of Ohio Sportsmen; Dr. Raymond C. Osborn, head of the department of zoology, Ohio State University; H. S. McSweeney, sportsman and manufacturer, Springfield, Edmond Secrest, of Wooster, state forester; Harry A. Caton, Fresno, master of the state game, and Nicholas V. Walter, sportsman and florist of Cincinnati.

In a letter to each board member advising him of the appointment, Director Truax says it is planned to have periodic meetings of the board, probably monthly, at which questions of policy may be discussed and acted upon. He said that it was the governor's and his thought that such a board, "bringing together the views of various interests affected by the work of the fish and game division, will render a valuable service to the sportsmen of Ohio."

He declared that conservation and propagation of fish and game life in the state, and development, improvement and reforestation of the state-owned game refuges are highly important and worthy of the best thought of leaders in this line of endeavor.

The first meeting of the advisory board has been set for Friday, December 28, at the fish and game department.

Can't Search Hotel
Room, Court Rules

CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—A campaign by federal prohibition officers against intoxicants in downtown hotels struck a snag today when Morris T. Lederer was freed by United States Commissioner M. J. McMahon here of a charge of having liquor in his room. A case of liquor was seized by the officers when they raided Lederer's room several weeks ago.

Commissioner McMahon ruled that a hotel room is a person's home, providing they can prove they have no other residence and as the raid was conducted without a search warrant the officers had no right to enter Lederer's room. The commissioner also pointed out that a special search warrant cannot be issued unless evidence of a sale is procured first.

Dollings Case Goes
Into Its Third Week

COLUMBUS, Dec. 15.—Unsuccessful efforts to introduce testimony were continued today by Dwight Harrison, vice president of the H. L. Dollings Company of Ohio, in his civil before Common Pleas Judge Duncan on charges of making false statements as to the holdings of the Phoenix Portland Cement Company of Ohio.

Harrison, on the stand in his own defense, told in detail of steps in negotiations for purchase of physical properties for the Ohio company. Many letters and telegrams he attempted to offer as evidence were ruled out by Judge Duncan.

House In Row Over
Legislative Committee

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—A row over the makeup of the committee which directs the legislation program, preventive house ratification today of the personnel of its standing committees. At the same time, another effort to break the senate deadlock over the election of a chairman of the interstate commerce committee failed, and the situation there apparently was exactly what it was when the senate quit balloting last Wednesday.

Opposition by both Republican insurgents and Democrats of the house to the plan of Republican organization leaders to have eight of their number on the rules committee developed to such an extent that it was decided not to present the committee list to the house for approval as had been planned. Whether there is to be any change in the fixed ratio of eight majority and four minority members will be discussed at a Republican conference called for tomorrow. The Democrats will hold a caucus Monday to consider the question.

Action Is Deferred.

Meantime, action on the committee personnel by the house has definitely been deferred until next week. This will delay organization of the new and reformed committee which had planned to begin consideration of tax reduction legislation next Monday. Representative Green of Iowa, who has been selected as chairman will call the members together as soon as the house has disposed of the committee question.

No Trace
Of Aviator

LONDON, Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—Up to today no trace had been found of Lawrence B. Sperry, the American aviator, whose small airplane was found in the English Channel yesterday, three miles off Rye.

P. R. Jackson, London, manager of the Sperry company, returned tonight from Rye, where he had gone when word reached him that the aviator was missing, reporting that an all-day search had failed to find the body and that the searching parties had abandoned their attempts. The plane, which has been towed into Rye, is believed by Mr. Jackson to be in a flyable condition.

Plane Is Upright.

Mr. Jackson is at a loss to account for the disappearance of Sperry, as the plane evidently landed on the water neatly. It was in an upright position when first sighted, the lower plane and tail being awash. He believes it would have been easy for Sperry to climb to the upper part of the plane or hold to the sides, as the sea at the time was calm.

A lifeboat reached the plane an hour and half after the accident and made a search of the vicinity, but there was no trace of the aviator.

Mr. Jackson is inclined to the belief that the missing aviator, after the airplane landed on the water, tried to swim toward the tail but became so numbed from the cold water that he was unable to climb up or hold on.

WORDS OF WISE MEN
All things that are good and beautiful make us more religious.

We should go into the world with small expectations and infinite patience.

There is no policy like politeness, where a good manner often succeeds where the best tongue has failed.

A little said and truly said can do more joy impart than hosts of words that reach the head, but never touch the heart.

The literature of the age is the photograph of its leading men and women.

A person is always startled when he hears himself seriously called old for the first time.

To be angry is to revenge the faults of others upon ourselves.

Those whom we call orators are often nothing else but artists and voluble and well-trained tongues but as one is an orator unless he is wise.

Every state, every commonwealth is to be governed by prudence, if it is to be lasting.

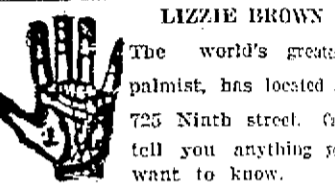

Memory is the treasury and guardian of all things.

Charity's money-bags are bottomless.

Kindnesses misplaced are not but a curse and deservise.

Let a man practice the profession in which he is best versed.

The power of separating the intellect from the senses, and reason from instinct, is characteristic of the highest genius.

 NEW YORK, N. Y., December 15.—Approval by the Interstate Commerce Commission of the recently promulgated plan of reorganization of the bonds of the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad to be mutually convertible in the early January, 1924, has been a factor in the market. The five per cent bonds of the railroad have risen nearly six points.

HERE'S A REAL THRILL PROVIDER: "Jumping the jumper" is the name of this act, which is one of the many stunts the Fort Myer (Va.) cavalry men are fond of performing. It's a question which took the more nerve—to jump the jumper or hold the angry army mule—who looks as if he's just about to cut loose with his hoofs.

FRENCH MOVIE BEAUTY. Renee Adoree, recently placed under a five-year American movie contract, is as clever and fascinating as the cute little French accent she brought from her native city of Lille, France. She has been playing lead roles with Earl Williams and Pat O'Malley.

THESE CIVIL WAR VETERANS, Wesley Kerr (left) and Harvey Carter, survivors of the battery which fired the first and last shots at the battle of New Market in 1864, were recently honored by the marines shown here. They were allowed to fire the first and last shots when the battle of New Market was reenacted by the marine corps as part of the maneuvers on the Virginia battlefield.

MOONLIGHT and the sea are always a pretty combination. Here we have a picture of the U. S. coast guard cutter Harbo, taken in Seattle harbor at night. Scenes such as this are uncommon enough, but photographs of them are rarely ever made.

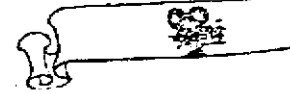

HERE'S NATURE AT ITS BEST. This view of a bit of California's rugged scenery may be glimpsed from the Bakersfield road that has just been cut through the mountains. Around the margin of the lake, that mirrors the pines and sky and the granite hills, a little band of tourists on horse back are winding their way.

SELECTS AND U. OF C. TEAMS CLASH HERE TONIGHT

Tonight at 8 o'clock in the new high school gym the Eastern Selects will again lock horns with the University of Cincinnati basketball quintet. This will be the first game of the season for both teams and the first time a contest has been staged in the new high school gym.

The Selects will trot out practically the same line up as last season, with the exception of the forward position. The forward positions and Backman at center. Kent and Brown are the guards. Barklow, Lett and Wallace, former high school stars, are out for positions on the Selects, while Arpee of the high school faculty, is out for a guard post.

Carson Hoy, Captain and forward of the University of Cincinnati basketball team, is completing his last year as a Cincinnati athlete. He is also a member of the basketball squad, having won his letter last year while playing in the outfield. Hoy is about 6 feet 9 inches in height, and weighs 145 pounds. He is a good fighter, and one of the most clever players Cincinnati has. He is a good shot, and a hard man to watch.

Victor Sticking is playing his first year as a regular. He was ineligible last year because of studies, but practiced every night with the varsity team, so that he would be able to step into a regular berth this winter. He is perhaps the best shot on the Cincinnati team and the most versatile of the Bearcats. Sticking is almost too light.

Greth-Wilson Matched
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—Negotiations virtually have been closed for a return match on January 18 for the world's middleweight championship between Harry Greth, of Pittsburgh, the title holder, and Johnny Wilson, of Boston. The bout will be staged in Madison Square Garden. Greth won the 100 pound crown from Wilson at the Polo Grounds last August.

Win and Lose

In the Portsmouth High School gym last night the Holy Redeemer and Sciotoville M. E. S. S. basketball teams won and lost. The M. E. Flying Deacons, the junior team from the Sciotoville church won over the Holy Redeemer Tigers 15 to 13. The Holy Redeemer Wildcats won over the M. E. Selects 18 to 9.

No decision had been given at that time on the protest against operation of the Red Star line. They are still running between Columbus and Portsmouth.

Big Leagues Open April 15

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—(By the A. P.)—One of the final acts of the baseball magnates who have spent the week here in business meetings and player trades, was the agreement of major league representatives on the opening date of April 15. Last year the leagues opened on different dates.

President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh Nationals, said that the opening date was virtually the only thing agreed upon but that the final of the schedule committee of each league next February was considerably smoothed by this arrangement. The American Association today adopted a schedule of 154 games, also opening April 15, the western clubs opening in the eastern cities as usual.

Wheelersburg Teams Defeat Minford

The Wheelersburg High School Quintet won two more games last night when they journeyed to Minford and met the teams representing that High School. The Wheelersburg boys won 57 to 9 and the girls 42 to 11. After running up a safe margin, Wheelersburg used a number of second string players.

The line-ups and scoring: (baskets and foul goals):
Wheelersburg boys: Minford
Preston, 4 21
W. Bial, 15 11
Compton, 3-2 10
C. Bial, 1 1

The Team Remembers!

Albert Schoensleben—around Redland Field in Cincinnati they know him as "Al, the milk man"—was a loyal fan for Pat Moran's Reds. He never missed a game and always he occupied the sunken seat in the bleachers. No matter how crowded the sections were, the crowds always held Al's place for him. Al died recently. And the Reds erected this monument to his memory.

Bankers stepped out in front yesterday in B league, and Faculty dropped correspondingly behind, as a result of an agreement to eliminate postponed games, three of which were pending between the two teams. It was agreed that each game should count double, and the Bankers, by winning three times, gained the equivalent of six games by scores of 21-11, 21-19 and 21-15.

In C league, the Doctors took the Ministers into camp three times by scores of 21-9, 21-16 and 21-15. The line-ups: Bankers, McNamara, Brunny, Ehrhart, Henderson, Hopkins and Uhl. Faculty, Rees, Hann, Wheeler, Wade, Morris and Baker. Doctors, Gault, Tatje, Rapp, Fitch, Micklethwaite and Wikoff. Ministers, Howerton, Cross, Bright, Schusky, Finney and Dudley.

Defeat Sciotoville Teams

The Sciotoville high school boys went down in defeat at the hands of the Ashland high school quintet last night. The Sciotoville boys lost 32 to 27, while the Sciotoville lasses were overthrown 49 to 4. The Ashland Kittens have another fast five this year and are bowling over all opponents.

The boys' game was a hard fought contest with the Ashland boys getting a good scare when the Sciotoville lads would come within a basket or two of tying the count.

The Sciotoville boys lined up with Haequard and Scott, forwards; Williams, center, and Russ and Dever, guards. The Sciotoville girls used Reinhardt and Belmont, forwards; Bush, center, and Martin, Wheeler, Dever and Stewart, guards. Martin and Wheeler were banished from the game by personal fouls. Belmont scored both baskets for Sciotoville.

Catlettsburg vs. Sciotoville Tonight

Tonight, in the Sciotoville high school gym, the Catlettsburg high school boys' five will clash with the fast stepping Sciotoville lads who have played two and lost both of them so far this season. They under a dandy showing at Ashland last night, when the Tom Cats nosed them out by only five points. The Catlettsburg lads have a fighting team and a close, hard-fought game is expected this evening.

Otway and South Webster Teams Split

South Webster's high school five broke even last night when they played Otway high school five at Otway. The S. W. boys won 26 to 8, while the Otway girls won over S. W. girls 11 to 0. The South Webster girls were not used to playing by the six player rule and played at a disadvantage. South Webster girls were also without the services of their star player, Jessal Newell, forward and basket tresser.

The South Webster boys now need only to trim Wheelersburg to be sure of first place among county teams, if previous success can be repeated in return games.
